Important Hearing Over Oklahoma Ten Commandments Monument

Liberty Institute and State of Oklahoma fight ACLU

This week, a Liberty Institute attorney appeared before an Oklahoma state court in support of a motion for summary judgment in favor of the Ten Commandments monument on the grounds of the Oklahoma State Capitol. If granted, the motion, made by the Oklahoma Capitol Preservation Commission, would result in the monument being declared constitutional—a major step forward in the case!

In August, the ACLU of Oklahoma filed a lawsuit seeking to have the Ten Commandments monument removed from the Oklahoma state capitol grounds. Liberty Institute is co-counsel with the Attorney General of Oklahoma in defending the Oklahoma Capitol Preservation Commission in this lawsuit.

LEADERS DEFENDING RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Liberty Institute has a long history of defending monuments, displays and memorials containing religious imagery. We successfully restored the Mojave Desert Veterans Memorial Cross, and we are currently fighting to save the Mt. Soledad Veterans Memorial Cross from being torn down.

Groups like the ACLU and Freedom From Religion Foundation are committed to removing these monuments from public view. But Liberty Institute is committed to enforcing the law that allows Ten Commandments displays and veterans memorials with religious imagery.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

But, we can't do this alone. We need your continued prayer and generous financial support to continue the important work of enforcing the law that allows appropriate Ten Commandments monuments and veterans memorials with religious imagery.

Please help us fight back against the ACLU and maintain our winning track record of protecting our First Freedom.
